

Reflector Quiz

No excuses – remember the reflector.

- 1. It is said that a reflector should generally be used. What is this based on?
 - a) A regulation by Traficom
 - b) A recommendation by the Finnish Road Safety Council
 - c) The Road Traffic Act
 - d) There is no obligation to use a reflector.

- 2. A driver using high beams can see a pedestrian wearing a reflector from up to
 - a) 50 meters away
 - b) 150 meters away
 - c) 350 meters away
 - d) 600 meters away.

- 3. The packaging of a proper reflector must include
 - a) CE marking and EN certification
 - b) The organization that performed the type inspection
 - c) The manufacturer and instructions for use
 - d) All of these

- 4. A reflector is most visible to drivers when it is attached
 - a) To the right sleeve of a jacket
 - b) To the front of a hat
 - c) Hanging on a backpack
 - d) Hanging on both sides

More information: Liikenneturva.fi/road-safety/reflector/

Right answers: C, D, D, D.